Si

Letter No. 102-F.S., dated the 29th January 1920, from the Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Revenue and Agriculture, (Foodstuffs), to All Local Governments and Administrations (except Burma).

With reference to the Hon'ble Mr. Mant's letter No. 1130-F.S. dated the 27th November 1919, I am directed to say that the Government of India have decided to maintain for the present the existing restrictions on the export of wheat and gram from the United Provinc and the Punjab, including the Province of Delhi, and to enclose statements showing the manner in which it has been decided to distri bute exports of these commodities to other provinces during the months of February and March. The gram allotments have been fixed for February only as the new gram crop will be coming into the marke at the end of that month and it may be possible to increase the allotments if necessary for the month of March.

2. It is probable that existing restrictions on the inter-provincial movements of rice will also have to be continued and a further communication on this subject will be made to you shortly.
